CONN BROTHERS

Mr. Wm. G. Anderson is numbered with the sick.

The county board, of supervisors is now in session and a report of their work will be given later.

Paul Morrow, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morrow, is recovering from quite a severe attack of illness.

C. M. Adams, one of Garrard county's best citizens, has moved to Shelby City. We hate to give him up but wish him much success.

All who saw the mysterious working of the hypnotist, Galvani, at the Court House on Tuesday and Wednesday night were loud in his praises. He entertained good crowds both nights.

To the People's Bank, of Paint Lick and the Garrard Bank & Trust Co. and Citizens National Bank, of this city, and the State Normal School, of Richmond, Ky., we express our thanks for a hand some calendar for each.

New Firm.

Mr. John M. Mount, son of J. R. Mount, has become a partner in the firm of J. R. Mount & Co. He is an excellent business man, very popular and will assist materially in the business of the firm.

Mr. Mount and his wife will live on Water street.

Stockholders Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Garrard County Fair Association on Monday afternoon, January 10th, 1910, at the Garrard Bank & Trust Co. building. As many important questions will come up at this meeting, the secretary earnestly urges you to be represented either in person or proxy.

Saturday at 11:30 Rev. O. P. Bush officiated at the marriage service of Miss Lucy Dickerson and Geo. Ray. Miss Dickerson made a bonny bride, attired in a handsome tailored suit of green and a dreamy white hat.

They were the recipients of several presents. The father of the groom, Mr. Hiram Ray remembered him with $1,000. Both young people are prominent in social circles, the bride also in church work.

Read and Profit.

Two grocery stores have changed hands in Lancaster since our last issue, W. D. Walker buying Gill & Simpson's and Messrs Ball & Holtzclaw buying H. M. Ballou's stock.

Their advertisements appear elsewhere in this issue and if you will watch for the grocery ads from week to week and count your saving for one year, you will never cease reading them for they will save you money.

Read the condition statement of the People's Bank on 4th page.

Mrs. J. S. Johnson is in Richmond at the bedside of her mother, who has been quite ill.

Robert Lillard Gulley came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gulley on New Years morning.

Since we did not publish last week, we find it impossible to give full mention of all events during the past two weeks.

The city board of Supervisors, consisting of Capt. Tom Austin, Judge Harris and W. B. Mason, raised the property list about $40,000, making it near a million.

Mr. J. L. Sanford who moved here from Kirksville to get the benefit of our school, entered six children in said institution on Monday. We welcome him and his excellent family.

No Electric Lights.

We have been informed by the Electric Light Company that they will not furnish lights during the next week. This inconvenience is excusable since they are moving their dynamo and doing some other necessary repairing.

We hope the lights will be better after the change.

Wheritt.

The unexpected death of Miss Bessie Wheritt, on December 25, caused sorrow and regret in the community. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Brown, the burial taking place in Lancaster cemetery on Sunday 26th. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheritt, to whom the Record extends sincere condolence. She was kind, intelligent and had many friends as well as a prominent relationship. Many beautiful floral designs were offered, as tokens of appreciation.

Lancaster Boy Honored.

At a meeting of the faculty of the medical department of the Lincoln Memorial University, Thomas P. Miller, of this city, was chosen as valedictorian to represent his class at the commencement exercises next spring. Mr. Miller is manager of the retail department of Miller & Kephart, and has pursued his studies at the medical college in connection with his other duties. He is one of the brightest students that has ever attended the medical school, and no greater honor can be conferred upon a member of the graduating class of any school than to be chosen valedictorian. Mr. Miller is being congratulated by his many friends in this city upon the honor, and a successful future is predicted for him in the medical profession.—Knoxville Sentinel.

Tom will be remembered as a son of Col. and Mrs. W. S. Miller, who were natives of this county. Every one will be glad to hear of Tom's success, knowing that the honor was worthily bestowed.

Swearing Day in Town.

One of the busiest days that we have ever seen was Monday, at which time all of the county officers were sworn in, and are now grinding away like they had been there for a long time. They had a hard day to begin their duties as nearly all of the transfers of land were postponed from Saturday until this day because all of the banks were closed, as is their custom.

The following ones took the oath of office: A. D. Ford, County Judge; J. W. Hamilton, County Clerk; G. T. Ballard, Sheriff with C. A. Robinson and Tom Ballard as deputies; J. E. Robinson, County Attorney; W. B. Mason, circuit clerk; Steve Carrier, Assessor; Jack Adams, Jailor; Miss Jennie Higgins, Superintendent; J. P. Bourne, Logan and Hiram Ray, Justices; Raymond Davis, Constable.

The constable and magistrate in district No. 4, and coroner elect, Simpson did not qualify. J. M. Farra was sworn in as coroner.

To start the ball rolling for another prosperous year for the city of Lancaster, H. T. Logan was sworn in as mayor together with councilmen Mount, Hill, Zanone, Greenleaf, Smith and Hamilton. At their first meeting which was Monday night, the following officers were elected: L. L. Walker, Attorney; L. E. Heron, Marshal and Superintendent of Water Works; D. A. Thomas, Treasurer; R. W. McRoberts, Clerk; and C. D. Walker Treasurer of Sinking Fund.

The body then adjourned to meet Tuesday night, January 11th. All of the old officers discharged their duties to the satisfaction of the general public. L. E. Heron, who has made a most excellent marshal, reports about $1,000 to the city's credit.

RELIGIOUS.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet this week with Mrs. Emma Kauffman. Elder F. M. Tindler's Bible Class met Tuesday evening at the home Miss Amanda Anderson.

Sunday night services will be conducted by Eld. F. M. Tindler at the Presbyterian church. Everybody invited.

The Week of Prayer that was begun Sunday night at the Baptist church and was to continue through this week was necessarily postponed on account of having no electric lights, after the services Tuesday night at Methodist church. It will be continued, however, at some early date.

S. B. Henry, who has charge of the Lancaster Cemetery, reports 56 burials during the year 1909, which is about the same as in former years.

Mr. Robert L. Elkin's many friends are glad to hear that he has recovered sufficiently from his late illness, to be out again.

The Mary Walker Price Chapter of the U. D. C. meets Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Miss Mary Doty. All of the members are urged to be present as some important business is to be discussed.

Painful Accident.

Mrs. Patsy Kinnaird, one of the most esteemed of the aged women of this community, fell while in the act of taking a seat and in some way missing the chair, striking the floor on one side and breaking her hip bone at the joint.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brown Jr., surprised their mother on January 1st with a storm party. This was Mrs. Brown's birthday and when all the children came in unexpectedly, with a gift of remembrance for her, it made the new year begin most pleasantly.

Prosperity.

Tobacco, and other crops, mules, hogs and cattle have brought much money to the people of Garrard county and they deserve it, for no better people live on earth. It is reported that the deposits in the five banks of the county, were larger last Monday than at any previous time in years. In the midst of these bounties, we should not forget the Giver of all these blessings.

H. K. Herndon Entertains Fraternity.

On Tuesday, December 28th, Mr. H. K. Herndon entertained the local members of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, at dinner at his palatial country home, in honor of his visitor from Ohio, Mr. C. S. Johnson. The dining room was beautifully decorated with white carnations and house plants, while the following members enjoyed the bounteous spread: J. B. Kinnaird, W. B. Cook, F. B. Marksberry, J. L. Gill, B. C. Ford, Shelle Hudson, Alex. Doty, Jr., V. G. Kinnaird, Joe F. Price, L. E. Ford, C. S. Johnstone.

Tobacco Barn Burned.

On last Monday night the tobacco barn belonging to Wm. Nuckles in the East end, containing about 5,000 pounds of tobacco belonging to Sam Baker, was destroyed by fire.

Blood hounds were gotten a few hours later and trailed directly to June Wren, who was arrested and lodged in jail here charged with the deed. We hear that the barn was insured, but none was on Baker's tobacco.

When protests his innocence. Particulars will be given after examining trial.

This is not a case of night riders.

Knight's Templar.

The exercises by Richmond Commandery, Knights Templar, held Christmas day were enjoyed by a large number of our people. Being a Christian organization, the Commanderies in every section of the country assemble on Christmas day for the purpose of giving public expression of their faith in and devotion to the Master. The program by the local organization consisted of splendid music, furnished by the Cecilia Club, and remarks by Eminent Commander D. B. Shackelford, Sir Knights A. R. Burnam and W. R. Shackelford. The principal address was made by Sir J. Mort Rothwell, of Lancaster. Mr. Rothwell, who is a gifted orator, gave a splendid outline of the order, its origin and purpose; pointing out its beautiful teachings and the good resulting therefrom. His subject, "The Day," afforded splendid opportunity to remind his listeners of the meaning of the celebration and what it meant to mankind.—Richmond Climax.

Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouses.

The effect of the Development Association is shown in the purchase of the Pilgrimage distillery, for it was not until after its organization that the business men of Lancaster and Garrard county awakened to the fact that we could do greater things if we would go after the business that was necessarily going to adjoining counties on account of our limited facilities for handling our tobacco.

Messrs J. M. Farra, Banks Hudson, W. R. Cook and R. I. Burton purchased the property, consisting of 204 acres, for $8,000.

They will begin remodeling it, as soon as the weather permits, and when they have completed their work, it will be the largest loose leaf Tobacco Warehouse and Redrying Plant in the state, with the exception of one in Lexington. There will be about 100,000 square feet of floor space, which will be sufficiently large to store all of the tobacco raised in Garrard and the adjoining counties.

During the busy season they will employ about 100 men, and will be prepared to shelter 50 wagons and teams. The L. & N. switch which runs part of the way to the large warehouses now will be extended to reach between the two main ones, so that tobacco can be shipped from either conveniently.

The company will be incorporated, but it is not known yet who will be the officers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Harvey Helm a candidate to succeed himself in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

A happy new year to rich and poor, saint and sinner, friend and foe.

Turn two new leaves—one to quit tithing and the other to be more charitable.

In 1909 the gifts, for educational and charitable purposes, amounted to $142,000,000.

We are sure that an increase in population and wealth, in our city and county, will be shown by the census to be taken this year.

Some one has suggested the enactment of a law barring men, over 65 years of age, from jury service. This is extreme folly. The courts would be deprived of experience and wisdom, in the jury box, which is only acquired by age. They serve as a check on the young and impulsive jurors. If the old man is not in good health the court will excuse him.

We have from time to time suggested needed legislation, and as the law-making power is in session, we shall still urge the passage of several bills. The body is so largely democratic that the party will be held responsible for the laws enacted. Hence the importance of doing right. Even if the republicans want a bond issue, to meet the deficit in the treasury, give it to them, and take the credit of relieving the country.

The management of the Louisville Times deserves the highest praise and commendation for issuing 108 pages of entertaining matter, consisting of current news, historic items, artistic illustrations, unique advertisements and superior feature articles, on December 31. This was done to celebrate the 25th anniversary of its birth, and it was the greatest feat in journalism ever known in Kentucky, or any Southern State. It proves what energy and intelligence can accomplish.

The meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, at Lexington, was the most brilliant and profitable one in its history. Much was said, by leading editors, on the proper management of a paper, what should be published, and the power and influence of the press, when run in the interest of the public. Helpful legislation, the curse of free advertising, and the benefits of a journal, devoted to the welfare of a community, were freely discussed, and the meeting will be productive of much good.

We suggest that the deficit in the Post office department can be paid by requiring Congressmen and all government officials to pay postage on matter that is sent out in their interest, as packages of seed, speeches, etc., which are used for electioneering purposes. Another method would be, to charge in proportion to the distance a package is carried. This is consistent with all rules of justice. A small increase for each additional 300 or 500 miles would raise a large sum of money.

Options are being sought on property suitable for the proposed Government building. This should be done before the matter is pushed in Washington, as no exorbitant price will be paid for any property. We hope that everybody will say and do something to help secure this building. It will be a benefit in many ways, bring more business, be a great convenience, and add to our already increasing population. The North side of the public square; J. I. Hamilton's home property; Central park and the Mason Hotel are among the sites named.

The new year is another volume, in the history of our life, consisting of 365 pages, each day being a page. Look out, or some pages will be left blank. Beware of blots or blurs, on other pages, above all, avoid a record of bad with sin. Let this volume shine throughout with brilliant deeds and achievements for the good of humanity and the glory of God. Let it be such as to meet the approval of the Court of Glory. Let each succeeding volume, or year, be similarly made up, and when you are called to answer for the deeds done in the body, you will stand free from any charge and be accorded an abundant entrance into Eternal Life.

Retrospective and Prospective.
The old year, with its tears and smiles, its joys and sorrows, has been consigned to the files of eternity to be used as testimony in the great day of reckoning. It produced abundant harvests, and so far as material prosperity is considered, it was one of the best years. It now behooves us to look to the future.

We have used these columns in the interest of every enterprise that had in view the public good and the general welfare. We again offer space to the advocates of public interests. We pledge our best efforts to aid in securing the following improvements, and ask for contributions concerning them: The Government building, which is mentioned elsewhere in this issue.

We heartily favor concrete pavements to the city limits, and we believe that all will agree with us, if they consider the convenience and the increase in the value of property, that would result from such improvement. Citizens, in other towns, objected, but, after they were built, they were satisfied and would not be without them.

We will continue to publish anything favoring a new school building. Everybody knows that our school has increased our population and enhanced the value of property.

We want everybody to join us in a united exertion to secure an interurban line.

The purchase of the Pilgrimage Distillery, by four of our enterprising citizens, with a view of converting the huge warehouse into a loose leaf tobacco house, is a deal that will be of inestimable benefit to our town and county. We can now handle our six millions of pounds of tobacco.

Saved At Death's Door.

The door of death seemed ready to open for Murray W. Ayers, of Transit Bridge N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved. "I was in a dreadful condition," he writes, "my skin was almost yellow; eyes sunken; tongue coated; emaciated from losing 40 pounds, growing weaker daily. Virtual liver trouble pulling me down to death in spite of doctors. Then that matchless medicine—Electric Bitters—cured me. I regained the 40 pounds, lost and now am well and strong." For all stomach, liver and kidney troubles they're supreme. 50c at R. E. McRoberts.

The remains of Mrs. Davis, of Crab Orchard, an excellent lady, was buried here on December 25th. The services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Brown.

The Chautauqua Circle met this week at the home of Misses Janey and Mary Doty.

Wm. J. Bryan on "Personal Liberty"

The most notable recruit of the prohibition ranks is Hon. William Jennings Bryan, who has come out in his newspaper, "The Commoner," emphatically against the saloons and the saloon arguments. His influence will be extensive. Dealing with the specious pleas of the liquor dealers that prohibition is an unwarranted infringement of personal liberty, Mr. Bryan says: "What is meant by personal liberty? Does it mean that a person has a right to drink in any quantity at any time and in any place, no matter what injury he may inflict on others? A drunken man is a menace to the lives and property of those about him; have his neighbors no right to protect themselves? A drunkard robs his wife and children and may finally make his family and himself a charge on society; has society no right to protect itself? The saloon is next-of-kin to the brothel and the gambling hell; it is the rendezvous of the criminal element and the willing tool of the corrupt politician; has not the body politic a right to protect itself from the demoralization which the saloon works? Personal liberty must not curtail or deny any other person's liberty. One man's liberty stops short at the limits of other men's rights. Mr. Bryan's aid in the great battle which is now being fought for the American home is heartily welcome.—Christian Observer.

Mrs. Amon Hostess

The Woman's Club was entertained by Mrs. Amon during Christmas week in a most interesting and novel way.

The members were invited to a "Library Party" and as the invitation read "come in or out of style" but so as to represent a book or author.

The "Lady of Quality" was present as well as several ladies of the decoration. "The Old Fashion Girl," "The Bride of Lammermoor" and "Marie Antoinette" in her famous neckties.

"Portia," "The New-comer" and a number in "Lavender and Old Lace," as well as "Old Rose and Silver," "Madam Butterfly" was quite gay and "The Woman in White" was joyous at meeting old friends again.

After a musical program and Reading of Brooks; "Little Town of Bethlehem" by Miss Edna Mason, Mrs. Amon gave a parody on "The Night Before Christmas," the theme being the history of the Club, which was a very delightful form of amusement.

A beautiful supper was served and toast given between the courses. Miss Elkin being Toast mistress—Woman Mrs. Amon, Our Guest, Mrs. McRoberts; The Club, Mrs. Brown; Response, Mrs. Kinnaird.

A leather copy of Stevenson's Poems was given to Miss Della Tindler for guessing correctly each character represented.

The next afternoon Mrs. Amon was hostess to the Richmond St. Ladies and a few intimate friends. Again others were charmed by the Christmas decoration and tasteful furnishings of the beautiful old colonial home.

A Kentucky home, a Kentucky hostess at Christmas speaks loudly of hospitality, of grace and of love.

Spoonmors

The sad death of Mrs. Stella N. Spoonmors, wife of H. C. Spoonmors, Wednesday December 29 1909, was a shock to her loved ones and friends, who will miss her loving face and helpful hand. She was born December 6 1873 being 36 years and 23 days old.

She was a consistent member of M. E. Church South and lived a Christian life trusting in God. Her death was pathetic and yet beautiful as she was ready to go and assured us she was going "Home" asking all to meet her there. She leaves to mourn their lost a devoted husband, one daughter, mother, brother and four sisters.

God has given, God has taken. We must bear the pain, for our loved one is singing in the Angel's choir to-day. It may not be long dear Stella, e'er we'll meet in realms above, and be sweetly reunited in eternal, boundless love.

A loved One.

Most prosperous of all years is the place to which 1909 is entitled in agriculture, declares the Secretary of Agriculture in his Thirteenth Annual Report. The value of farm products is so incomparably large that it has become merely a row of figures. For this year it is $8,760,000,000, a gain of $880,000,000 over 1908. The value of the products has nearly doubled in ten years. The report says, "Eleven years of agriculture beginning with a production of $4,417,000,000 and ending with $8,760,000,000. A sum of $70,000,000,000 for the period. It has paid off mortgages, it has established banks, it has made better homes it has helped to make the farmer a citizen of the world, and it has provided him with means for improving his soil and making it more productive."

The most striking fact in the world's agriculture is the value of the corn crop for 1909, which is about $1,720,000,000. It nearly equals the value of the clothing and personal adornments of 76,000,000 people, according to the census of 1900. The gold and silver coin and bullion of the United States are not of greater value. It has grown up from the soil and out of the air in 120 days, $15,000,000 a day for one crop, nearly enough for two. Dreadnought daily for peace or war. This crop exceeds in value the average of the crops of the five preceding years by 36 per cent.

How's This for an Affinity Offer?

"If there is any woman in this town, or in any other, who sees her affinity in my husband, this is to notify her that she can have him by calling at my home, The Hilltop, Atchison, Kan., at any hour she may choose. He grumbles at his meals, he blows his nose into the grate, he puts his feet on the parlor cushions; he tells callers that his father was a poor man, and that he never 'had any schooling'; he contradicts my statements when I tell of my kinship to the real prominent people, and if I don't watch him he 'visits' with the hired man, and once asked the milkman to dinner! If there is any woman who sees her affinity in HIM, let her hang around my house a few minutes while I ask him for Christmas money. Then let her take him away if she still wants him."—Atchison Globe.

The Pedestrian in 1910.

Chug-chug! Br-r-r! Br-r-r! Gilling-lug-gilling-lug!

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy cross-roads and looked about. An automobile was rushing at him from one direction, a motorcycle from another, an auto truck was coming from behind, and a taxicab was speedily approaching. Z-z-zip! Zing-glug!

He looked up and saw directly above him a runaway airship rapid descent. There was but one chance. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole—just in time to be run over by a subway train.—Lip-lip-lip!

The Meanest Man in Town

is the one who always wears a frown, is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's not the poor fellow's fault, it's his liver and digestion that makes him feel miserable, he can't help being disagreeable. Are you in danger of getting into that condition? Then start at once taking Ballard's Herbine for your liver—the safe, sure and reliable vegetable regulator. Sold by R. E. McRoberts.

Something New In Kitchen Ware

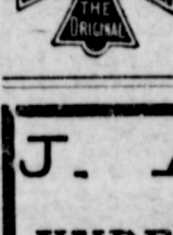

The "1892" Pure Spun Aluminum Ware is rapidly coming into use for cooking purposes. It is taking the place of agate and enamel ware because while its first cost is a trifle more than ordinary ware, it is really much cheaper in the long run, as it is guaranteed for twenty-five years and will last practically a life time.

The genuine "1892" Ware, made only from pure SPUN (not cast) Aluminum, will not crack, scale, peel, break, sear or burn.

It looks like silver but weighs only about one-quarter as much, is easily cleaned and handled, and will not rust, corrode or tarnish. Absolutely pure, non-poisonous and wholesome; saves money, time and doctor's bills.

Be sure you get the original and genuine ware stamped with the Maltese Cross. At your dealer's.
